31st July 2022 - EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

First Reading: Book of Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity! For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity. The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Second Reading: St Paul to the Colossians 3:1-5,9-11

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him. That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Happy are the poor in spirit: the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied, 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.' Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time." But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.' The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time: August 7th 2022: Book of Wisdom 18:6-9; Letter to the Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Luke 12:32-48

"A Vigil for Peace"

will be held at Holy Family, Church, Kirup, on Saturday 6th August (Peace Day) between 9.30am to 2.30pm. You are invited to be part of all, or part of, the day of silent prayer to light a candle, place a flower, or make a paper crane as part of

"This is our cry. This is our prayer. Peace on Earth."

All three readings of today's liturgy make reference to material possessions. Finances, property, possessions are indispensable for the living of our human lives. But a wrong attitude to these things can have disastrous consequences. The question from the 'man in the crowd', in the gospel reading, reminds us that disputes about inheritance can destroy families. The disastrous consequences of greed - the obsession to have more - in the lives of people - both the rich and the poor - are so subtle that they can easily be overlooked. (

PARISH NEWS

Please continue to keep in your prayers our September Reconciliation candidates Arizxa Libres and Georgia Holzknecht and their families and teachers.

First Friday Mass will be celebrated at 9.00am on Friday 5th August followed by Adoration. First Saturday Mass on 6th August will be celebrated at 9.00am (Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord).

Morning Tea after Mass today - come and enjoy a hot cuppa and chat!

Thank you to John Paul for donating firewood for the Parish House - much appreciated!

Enclosed is a Pastoral Letter from Bishop Holohan regarding the second Assembly of the Plenary Council in Sydney, to which he was a delegate.

The St Patrick's Pastoral Parish Council held its meeting last Tuesday - it is planned that the Minutes of the meetings will be placed on the Notice Board for anyone interested in reading them. The next meeting will be held on 20th September.

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Julian Letter, Derrick Nalli, Laline Ford and David McGuire; Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme."' Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
