PARISH PRAYER: Please refer to the overhead screen14th August 2022 - TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C*First Reading: Jeremiah 38:4-6,8-10

The king's leading men spoke to the king. 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank. Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king. 'My lord king,' he said 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well, where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

The word of the Lord.Responsorial Psalm: Lord, come to my aid!*Second Reading: Letter to the Hebrews 12:1-4

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shameful of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord: I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 12:49-53

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over! 'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.' The Gospel of the Lord

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS: 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time: August 21st 2022: Isaiah 66:18-21; Letter to the Hebrews 12:5-7,11-13; Luke 13:22-30

This August we acknowledge 60 years since our Church was consecrated after extensive extensions and renovations. The first wood and iron Catholic Church, St Patrick's was opened in 1893. This was the first Catholic Church to be built between Albany and Beverley, located at the southern end of Austral Terrace. The first parish priest was Father Duff. By the early 1920s the parish had outgrown its church, so in 1923 a block of land was purchased on the north side of the Amherst Street for £300. The site of the original church was sold to the Vacuum Oil Company for £450. The new church was opened on 19th August 1923. Father Reidy having been a major force behind the project. The Architect was M F Cavanagh and the builder was Alex Thomson. St Patrick's school was also erected on the church block in the same year. In 1937/38, Father Byrne carried out improvements to the church by adding a confessional box and new seating. In the same year Mrs. M J Garrity placed a statue of Our Lady of Lourdes and accompanying angels in the sanctuary. When Fr McSweeney arrived in 1959 he took over the work started by Fr Casey, and launched a campaign to raise finance for additions to the church. The additions were completed and consecrated by Rev. Goody, Bishop of Bunbury in August 1962, the designer and builder being S. Costello.

PARISH NEWS

Please continue to keep in your prayers our September Reconciliation candidates Arizxa Libres and Georgia Holzknacht and their families and teachers.

Fr Marlon will be absent from the Parish next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 16th, 17th and 18th August as he will be attending the Priest's Professional Development Days in Bunbury.

Mass for the Feast of the Assumption will be celebrated on Friday 19th August (in lieu of 15th August) at 9.00am hosted by St Patrick's School. Mary perseveres in faith throughout her life. She gathers with the apostles for prayer even after her son's ascension. Since one of the blessings promised to all faithful disciples is victory over death, it is fitting that Mary, who is the first and model disciple of Christ, would be the first to receive this blessing.

Catholics thus believe that the privilege of resurrection promised to all faithful Christians was given first to Mary and in a totally unique way.

SCAM WARNING FROM THE BISHOP

Dear Parishioners, some parishes in the Diocese have been scammed, or suffered an attempt at being scammed, over recent weeks. This notice is a warning. The scam is to receive an email or text supposedly from a priest known to them, such as the present or past Parish Priest, claiming an urgent need and asking for significant amounts of money in the form of gift cards. No priest in fact would do this. Please take care. God bless, Bishop Gerard

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Julian Letter, Derrick Nalli, Laline Ford and David McGuire; Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme."' Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
