SUNDAY 7th JULY 2024 - FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

First Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.' The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Second Reading: Second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 12:7-10

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith. The Gospel of the Lord

Next Week's Readings: Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B 21st July 2024: Amos 7:12-15; St Paul to the Ephesians 1:3-14; Mark 6:7-13

Our Parish Bulletin may also be accessed through the St Patrick's Primary School website under "Our Community" and then "Parish"

The fourth annual Diocesan retiring collection will be held next Sunday 14th July in aid of Peter's Pence. The Peter's Pence money is spent in three areas: social projects, supporting the evangelizing presence of local churches in need, and the expansion and preservation of the evangelizing presence in new local Churches. In 2023 the top item in the social projects category was a donation of $1.6 million to war-torn Ukraine.

We notice several new faces in our congregation, for those of us that have been in the parish for a while (or even a little while), this presents both an opportunity and a challenge for us. Like anyone entering a new environment, there can be fear or at least uncertainty, in new surroundings. The challenge for us is to welcome these people (and all new people) to our parish. What an opportunity! So, if you see a new face or faces in the coming weeks, why don't you reach out the hand of welcome, engage in a discussion or invite them to our monthly morning tea. It is surely the least we can do to welcome and make people feel comfortable in our midst. This is how you build strong communities. It's not that hard, but we do need to get out of our comfort zones and make the effort. For anyone new or newish to our parish, we genuinely hope you feel welcomed. We are all part of the bigger Christian community, but we hope you can feel that you are part of our community, and we can grow in love for God together. (Thanks to M. Kelly Queens Park Parish)

PARISH NEWS

Next Wednesday 10th July marks the 59th anniversary of the ordination of Fr John Bonato (born and raised in Katanning and cousin to Antoinette), the only priest to have been ordained here in Katanning. Fr Bonato passed away in Suva on April 18, 2012. May he rest in peace.

The funeral service for the late Mrs Jeanne Tion of Gnowangerup and formerly of Katanning will be held at St Patrick's Church Katanning Thursday 11th July at 11.00am. Prayerful condolences are with her family. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her, may she rest in peace. Amen

This coming week in Australia is one of prayer marking National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People Week starting today. We pray on this National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday for a spirit of reconciliation with respect and justice among all in this land. The theme for this year is "Keep the Fire Burning – Strong in Faith".

Let us continue to pray for the sick members of our families and also within our Parish especially: Laline Ford and David McGuire; Also our Parishioners in Kerry Lodge and Bethshan, Clara Illiano and Bonnie Quartermaine. Please keep them in your prayers.

The ability to budget can only come about through the 'generous financial support of members of the Parish who make a pledge through the "Planned Giving Programme." Like all families, everyone's pledge is important and commitment to the financial well-being of St Patrick's Parish is VITAL. If you would like to join or know more about the programme please contact the Parish Office or Mr Peter Kerin.
